

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

Bryan Gartenberg

Bryan Gartenberg is director of business development at CSC® Global Financial Markets (GFM) and its wholly owned subsidiary, Delaware Trust Company. Focusing on relationship management and business development, Bryan will expand the U.S. escrow and specialized service business targeting the M&A, risk management, debt capital market, project and structured financings, and restructurings markets.

Bryan's career includes 15 years at Deutsche Bank, where he was head of sales of corporate trust and escrow Americas. He also served as assignments head of project finance product sales and head of LATAM sales. Before Deutsche Bank, Bryan spent 20 years with Citi in various roles, including corporate trust sales head, escrow and project finance administration team leader, American depository receipts analyst, and fixed-income bond options trader. Bryan has deep professional networks in several industries, including energy and power, autos, financial institutions, insurance, private equity, infrastructure, and the legal community.

Bryan received his Bachelor of Arts from Queens College of the City University of New York. He is on the board of directors and treasurer for the American Friends of ALYN Hospital and board of trustees for Congregation Kehilat Rayim Ahuvim in New York City.

 302.485.1097

 bryan.gartenberg@delawaretrust.com

 Download vCard