

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

Jonathan Hanly

Jonathan Hanly is managing director of CSC® Capital Markets Europe in Ireland and is responsible for general management, including finance, and operations.

Before joining CSC, Jonathan spent five years as managing director of the Irish division of SFM Europe (now part of the Intertrust Group). Before his time at Intertrust, Jonathan held multiple leadership roles at Royal Bank of Scotland (RBS), including head of the RBS plc's Irish branch, head of global transaction services in Ireland and head of domestic banking services for the Ulster Bank division of RBS.

Jonathan is a chartered management accountant from Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA) and a Qualified Financial Advisor (QFA). He holds a master of business and science (MBS) in International Business and a bachelor's degree in Commerce (International), both from University College Dublin.

He is approved by the Central Bank of Ireland as a “fit and proper person” to serve as a non-executive director to regulated and non-regulated financial entities.

Jonathan lives in Ireland.

 +353 1 566 8893

 Jonathan.Hanly@cscgfm.com