

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

Scott Davidoff

Scott Davidoff is a director of business development for CSC Global Financial Markets (GFM) based in the New York office. Scott is responsible for expanding our SPV management business and building strategic partnerships and business relationships in the United States.

Scott has spent more than 20 years in the financial services industry in roles covering both the delivery and sales side of the business. Before joining CSC, he worked with Waystone and KPMG respectively, providing governance, risk, compliance, and accounting services. Scott managed the rollout of regulatory compliance services to private funds and has written on regulatory compliance matters, including the Bipartisan Budget Act's partnership representative requirements for foreign investment managers. He also is a founding member of NJALTS, an investment management group for industry professionals in New Jersey.

Scott attended SUNY Binghamton in New York, where he received a B.A. in political science.

 302 485 1372

 scott.davidoff@cscgm.com