

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

Steve Giurlando

Steve Giurlando is head of business development, corporate trust and agency services with CSC Global Financial Markets and its wholly owned subsidiary, Delaware Trust. Steve is responsible for leading and growing our team focused on expanding our trust and agency services in the United States, working in coordination with our global offices.

Steve has more than 30 years of experience in banking and financial services with a successful track record of driving multimillion-dollar revenue growth. He has an accomplished reputation of identifying and maintaining key clients across debt capital markets, mergers and acquisitions, and similar segments.

Before joining CSC, Steve served as senior vice president at Wells Fargo's corporate trust services business. Prior to Wells Fargo, Steve spent more than 20 years with BNY Mellon in business development and leaderships roles across their wealth management and corporate trust businesses.

Steve attended St. John's University in New York, where he received a Bachelor of Science in finance.

 302-485-1057

 steve.giurlando@delawaretrust.com

 Download vCard